NOTES FOR APPLICANTS

You must apply for a scholarship at the same time as, or subsequent to, applying for an LSBF Graduate Programme. All information provided in the application form will be considered when applying for the Bank of Scotland International Scholarship.

The criteria for a successful scholarship applicant are as follows:

- You must be an applicant for a place on an Undergraduate or Postgraduate programme at LSBF
- You must be a national of the People's Republic of China, Hong Kong (SAR) or Macau (SAR)
- You must be a graduate with proven academic skills
- You should be committed to contribute to the socio-economic development of the People's Republic of China
- You should have an established career, with a track record of excellence and achievement and the prospect of becoming a leader in your chosen field
- You must have good English Language skills: see the English language proficiency requirements for our Graduate Programmes
- You must have sufficient funds to meet your tuition fees and living expenses, after taking account of the possible award of an Emerging Markets Scholarship

All LSBF Scholarships are awarded only in the form of a reduction in tuition fees payable.

Completed application forms should be submitted at the same time as, or subsequent to, applying for an LSBF graduate programme to the following address:

* UK students are not eligible for the Bank of Scotland International Scholarship Scheme. However, they are encouraged to apply for other LSBF's Scholarship Schemes.

4. Personal statement*

Please state in not more than 1,000 words in the space provided below:

- a) How you think you will benefit in terms of career and personal development from obtaining this scholarship.
- b) How you will contribute to the socio-economic development of the country you are coming from through implementing the new skills and knowledge acquired in the UK;

Continue on a separate sheet, if necessary.

* The School reserves the right to investigate and possibly withdraw a person from the scholarship programme if there is adequate proven evidence of serious allegations of using other peoples' written statements.

5. Finances

In fairness to other applicants, we are unable to consider applications from candidates who have not already secured sufficient funds to meet their tuition fees and living expenses at the time of application. Please state below how your tuition fees and living expenses will be met.

6. Terms and conditions

1. Scholarship applicants must apply for a scholarship at the same time as, or subsequent to, applying for one of LSBF's Master programmes. All information provided in the application form will be considered when applying for the LSBF's Scholarships Scheme.
2. The Bank of Scotland International Scholarship is awarded only in the form of a reduction in tuition fees payable to LSBF.
3. Please note that you can only apply for ONE scholarship or bursary. If, for example, you applied for a Corporate Scholarship, you would not be allowed to apply for the Bank of Scotland International Scholarship.
4. The Student agrees that he/she cannot change, defer the scholarship, without prior permission from LSBF.
5. In case of an award from Bank of Scotland International Scholarship, if a student intends to postpone his/her place until the following intake, he needs to pay the remaining tuition fee. He will be permitted to do so only at the discretion of the School.
6. The scholarship is not transferable to another student.
7. In the event that a student does not attend a programme through serious unforeseen circumstances (death, accident, or serious illness) a specific committee will examine each case on an individual basis.
8. Attendance is compulsory. An attendance rate of less than 90% will lead to scholarship withdrawal.
9. Any failure to start the course as scheduled without prior notification of the School's authorities will lead to scholarship withdrawal.
10. The School reserves the right to disclose students' details, including academic progress and attendance rates to the Home Office authorities.
11. The scholarship is for the ONE named person and LSBF will not be responsible for a scholar's family members/spouse/children, etc. and if a scholar wishes to have a family member accompany him/her, they need to be aware that the School does not recommend this as the scholar, not LSBF, will be solely responsible and they will be required to pay for the additional family member/s, not LSBF who accepts no liability.
12. LSBF may also use information collected regarding the scholars in the School marketing activities; however, students' addresses and telephone numbers will not be given out without permission from the student via a request from us.
13. LSBF may feature your interview/photo/profile/story on the LSBF website and/or other School publications and will ask for your permission/approval prior to publishing this.
14. The School reserves the right to utilise this information in the promotion of the School and in any other student recruitment and/or Scholarship promotion activities.
15. Please note that when requested scholars are required to show originals (not photocopies) of transcripts and documents submitted in evidence with their scholarship application, and present these to the Scholarship office, if there is any question of authenticity. If, after checking, LSBF discovers any documents that are NOT 100% genuine, the scholarship award will immediately be invalidated and withdrawn. The School accepts NO liability in this case.
16. It is the scholar's responsibility to set a good example, e.g. strive for best results, attend classes, finish the course on time and continue to demonstrate the exemplary student attributes/grades by which he/she was awarded the scholarship.
17. By invitation only, scholars will take part in welcoming new students to the scholarship programme.
18. The Scholarship panel and LSBF are not in a position to provide information regarding the non-awarding of scholarships and the panel's decision is final.
19. The School reserves the right to investigate and possibly withdraw a person from the scholarship programme if there is adequate proven evidence of serious allegations of illegal activities.

By signing this application form, you confirm that you agree to all of the terms and conditions related to scholarships set out by LSBF.
